

Questions concerning the restrictions of the rights of certain groups of citizens

NATIONALS WITH RESTRICTED CITIZENSHIP
DEFINITION: Nationals whose citizenship is restricted because of:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. the mode of acquisition of nationality b. the time they have held nationality, or c. their status as special nationals (e.g. British Dependent Territories Citizens)
1. Does the country's legislation provide for nationals with restricted citizenship?
Yes
No
2. Which rights connected to citizenship are withheld from persons having restricted citizenship?
	No	If Yes, please specify
Political rights (esp. right to vote and be elected)
Freedom of movement (in and out of the country, right of (re)admission)
Other restricted rights
3. Is the restriction of citizenship connected to the mode of acquisition or time they have held nationality?
	No	If Yes, please specify
Mode of acquisition
Time they held nationality

D5: A list of groups of persons and of questions to be answered in WP5 in the context of restrictions of the rights of certain groups of citizens

DUAL NATIONALS
1. Does the law of your country provide for special rules for dual nationals?
Yes
No
2. Does the law provide for special rules for:
	No	If Yes, please specify
Political rights (public service, political positions)
Diplomatic protection
Military obligations
Other rights or obligations
3. Is there a special status of “dormant nationality”?
No	If yes, please specify

EXPATRIATES
DEFINITION: nationals of the country under consideration residing abroad, including nationals who have acquired their nationality by ius sanguinis abroad and have never resided in their country of nationality.
1. Do special regulations exist for expatriates?
Yes		If no, please go to question 6 of this topic
No
2. Do special regulations exist concerning their political rights?
	No	If Yes, please specify
The right to vote and stand in parliamentary or other elections?
Or any other elections?
Do expatriates have special representation in parliament?
3. Do special regulations exist concerning their military obligations?
No	If yes, please specify
4. Are there any legal restrictions to return to the country of nationality?
No	If yes, please specify
5. For the areas mentioned above: is there a difference of rights of expatriates depending on their (or their parents') place of birth or their time of residence abroad?
No	If yes, please specify

6. What is your country's position concerning the international obligation to take back its nationals?

Is this obligation fully honoured in practice? If not, please specify (e.g. non-issuing of identity documents for expatriates liable to be deported, denaturalisation of expatriates in order to prevent their return)