We have the pleasure to announce that Sophie Guerard de Latour will be giving a keynote address at the IMISCOE/NoVaMigra PhD Led Workshop on Norms and Values.

Sophie Guerard de Latour is a professor of political philosophy at the Department of Social Sciences at École normale supérieure de Lyon, France. She has published extensively on a diverse set of topics, including multiculturalism, minorities' rights, French republican secularism, integration and interethnic relations.

In this keynote she will address her most recent work: 'Is hospitality towards migrants a democratic value?'. With a starting point in the notion of 'hospitality', she explores the tension between ethics and politics, and accordingly between private and personal values.

The event is free and open to everyone.

Welcome!
