

DIVCULT Superdiversity, Migration and Cultural Change PhD Student Representative

Role overview

Overview

The main purpose of the PhD representative is to engage with and represent the views of the DIVCULT PhD community.

The PhD representative is a member of the DIVCULT Executive Board and is appointed for a period of 2 years, renewable once. The role is voluntary and involves frequent email communication and occasional in-person and online meetings.

Key duties:

- Organising internal activities representing the interests of the DIVCULT PhD community
- Ensuring that all PhD members in DIVCULT feel welcome and have opportunities to actively participate in DIVCULT activities and initiatives
- Liaising between the Executive Board and PhD community
- Actively sharing the PhD students' views, concerns and ideas relevant to the work and purpose of DIVCULT to the Executive Board
- Sharing relevant information and opportunities with the DIVCULT PhD community and the broader DIVCULT membership, when appropriate
- Maintaining a PhD mailing list and resource folder.

Appointment requirements:

- Applicants must be a current DIVCULT SC member
- Have at least two more years left before completing their PhD.

The current DIVCULT PhD representative (2022-2024) is Carolina Triana-Cuellar (University of Sussex). Next appointee will start from January 2024. Call for Expressions of Interest (EOI) will be announced by November 2023.
