

SC Reflexivities Sessions at the Annual Conference:

Monday, June 29

13:00–14:30

- Session #14 (workshop) — Racialised Positionalities in Research on Asian Diasporas: Reflexivity, Methodology, and Collaboration
- Session #22 (panel) — Between being one of them and being with them: Beyond migration research through Community Engagement

14:50–16:20

- Session #28 (workshop) — The productivity and contestation of ‘crisis’ narratives
-

Tuesday, June 30

10:50–12:20

- Session #96 (panel) — Co-Producing Migration Knowledge through Community Engagement

15:00–16:30

- Session #102 (workshop) — Alternative spatial approaches in migration research and their transformative potential
- Session #118 (workshop) — Conceptualizing migration aspirations and im/mobility: From theory to practice to transformation
- Session #123 (panel) — Rethinking Mobility, Integration, and Return

16:50–18:20

- Session #133 (panel) — Emotional Labour in Participatory Research with Racialised and Minoritised Groups: Theories, Positionalities, and Lived Experiences
  - Session #137 (workshop) — More collaborative, less extractive: decentring migration research and methodologies
-

Wednesday, July 1

09:00–10:30

- Session #149 (workshop) — SC Reflexivities Special Session: Bottom-up epistemologies: decentering and reflexivity in knowledge production through community-based research?
- Session #157 (panel) — Beyond compliance: Negotiating institutional ethics and lived realities in migration research

- Session #158 (workshop) — Navigating institutional barriers to epistemic justice in co-research with migrant-background communities
- Session #165 (workshop) — Reflexive migration research and community engagement in 'left-behind places'

15:00–16:30

- Session #197 (workshop) — Im/Mobility and Immobilisation: addressing an under-explored phenomenon
- Session #207 (panel) — Methodological and ethical challenges as sites of knowledge production in co-creative migration research
- Session #209 (panel) — Beyond Inclusion: Dismantling White Childhoods in Migration and Education Research
- Session #216 (panel) — Beyond Narratives: Critical Perspectives in Migration Studies

16:50–18:20

- Session #221 (panel) — Beyond Mobility: The Consequences of Involuntary Immobility for Migration Studies
- Session #224 (workshop) — Unpacking 'Community' in 'Community Engagement': A Critical Discussion
- Session #234 (workshop) — Bottom-up Data and Community Cartographies: Rethinking Knowledge Production on Migration

Thursday, July 2

09:00–10:30

- Session #247 (workshop) — SC Reflexivities Special Session: Beyond Exceptionalism: Normalizing Engaged Research and Questioning Its 'Non-Engaged' Counterpart
- Session #255 (panel) — Relational ethics in migration research: Care, reflexivity and responsibility
- Session #262 (workshop) — Roundtable: Migration research in contested times: methodical and methodological challenges in a scenery of polarized discourses
- Session #263 (workshop) — Navigating the complexities of community engagement in migration research

10:50–12:20

- Session #272 (panel) — Rethinking Participation and Community Engagement in Migration Research : Who participates, on whose terms, and to what end?