

06-07
FEB 2020

IGOT
UNIV. OF LISBON

MOVING, LIVING, INVESTING AND SURVIVING: HOUSING AND MIGRATIONS IN UNCERTAIN TIMES

IMISCOE SPRING CONFERENCE 2020

Thursday, February 6th

16h Registration

17h Opening ceremony (Auditório Orlando Ribeiro)
Welcome address by José Manuel Simões (President of IGOT),
Peter Scholten (IMISCOE Coordinator) and Maria Lucinda
Fonseca (Director of Migrare-IGOT/CEG)

17h30 Keynote speech #1 (Auditório Orlando Ribeiro)
Challenging the 'asylum-seeking market': privatisation and the politics of care in the UK's asylum dispersal system
Jonathan Darling (Durham University)

18h30 Book launch (Auditório Orlando Ribeiro)
Politics of (Dis)Integration, IMISCOE Research Series, Springer, edited by Sophie Hinger and Reinhard Schweitzer
Discussion led by Rinus Penninx

19h30 Porto de honra

Friday, February 7th

09h Parallel sessions

Panel 1: Homemaking and temporality (Sala 1.1)

Chair: José Mapril

Paolo Boccagni

"... as if it is your home": Homemaking and the negotiation of care, privacy and control in an asylum reception facility in Italy

Silvia Cittadini

Feeling at home? Home-making and the social inclusion of Roma through the lenses of housing stories, emotions and dreams. An empirical study in Italy

Raffaella Greco Tonegutti

Homing in uncertain times

Simona Colucci

Where are you going? Home-making practices of unaccompanied migrant youths in Milan

Panel 2: Migrants' residential trajectories (Sala 1.2)

Chair: Alina Esteves

Anna Perraudin

Does home-ownership still work as a safety net? Actors, strategies, inequalities rushing ordinary migrants into home-ownership

Jorgen Carling and Marta Bivand Erdal

Religiosity and home ownership among Muslims in Norway

Julie Fromentin

New immigrant settlement and housing patterns in rural France: another look at rural change

Yasmine Siblot

Social and Residential Trajectories of Portuguese Migrants in the Parisian suburbs. Housing as an indicator of social differences and of institutional relations

Panel 3: Spatial change and migrant settlement (Sala 2.3)

Chair: Lucinda Fonseca

Jorge Malheiros, Katielle Silva, Marcos Correia

Immigrants' Spatial Patterns and the Evolution of Housing Conditions in the Lisbon Metropolitan Area (1991 until the present)

Abel Ghekiere, Pieter-Paul Verhaeghe

How does ethnic discrimination on the housing market differ between neighbourhoods and real estate agencies?

João Carvalho, Alejandra Ortiz, Sandro Teixeira

Immigration into rural areas: the case of Alentejo

10h30

Coffee break

11h

Parallel sessions

Panel 4: Precarity and violence in housing (Sala 2.3)

Chair: Eduardo Ascensão

Dora Rebelo

"Is this what we came here for?" The slow violence of refugee housing in Portugal

Corina Tulbure

A "home" crossed by the border: homelessness and border practices inside the city of Barcelona

Sílvia Cardoso

Refugee Housing in Lisbon's center and periphery: 'politics of abandonment' and imperceptible resistance

Solange Maslowski

Housing for EU citizens on the move, a legal requirement despite its absence from EU primary and secondary law?

Panel 5: Housing and return (Sala 2.4)

Chair: Amandine Desille

Matiul Hoque Masud

Housing and Internal Migration of Emigrants in Suburban Areas: Resettlement Policy at the Household Level in the Case of Bangladesh

Luis Eduardo Pérez Murcia

Building a house or a home? The politics of 'remittance' housing in Ecuador

Barbara Jancewicz

Migrants' real estate in the home country: financial, emotional and familial aspects of Poles real estate back home

Aleksandra Winiarska, Justyna Salamońska, Marta Kluszczyńska
Notions of home and home-making in the narratives of 'multiple' migrants

12h30

Lunch

13h30

Keynote speech #2 (Auditório Orlando Ribeiro)

The changing landscape of housing for migrants and refugees in EU's southeastern border

Thomas Maloutas (Harokopio University)

14h30

Parallel sessions

Panel 6: Material culture (Sala 2.4)

Chair: Paolo Boccagni

José Mapril

Objects, personhood and home-making. Notes on a long-term ethnography with Bangladeshis in Lisbon and London

Darja Klingenberg

Materialism, Hope, and Melancholia of Home. Dwelling as a Research Perspective for Migration Studies

Liliana Azevedo

Thinking migration and home-making through materialities

Laura Morosanu, Russell King, Aija Lulle

In control? Housing experiences and aspirations amongst European youth in London

Panel 7: Urban change and migrants' settlement (Sala 1.2)

Chair: Jorge Malheiros

Marina Carreiras

The macro forces of gentrification and immigration: a vision through the portuguese case

Flavio Lucchesi, Maria Paradiso, Giuseppe Gambazza

Beyond the reception system. Refugees' access to housing in the city of Milan

Rutvica Andrijasevic

Transnational production, housing and control over migrant labour

Panel 8: Multilevel housing policymaking (Sala 2.3)

Chair: Jonathan Darling

Mikaela Herbert, Erica Righard

Changing policy responses to accommodation and settlement at times of peaking refugee immigration to Sweden in the 1990s and 2010s

Paschalis Arvanitidis, Pinelopi Vergou, Panos Manetos, George Grigoriou
Refugee urban settlement and social housing in Greece: A different tale of two cities

Andrea Pena-Vasquez
Setting Down (Social) Roots: Housing Policy and Regularization in Spain

Patricia García Amado
Our House in the Middle of Our Street. Internally Displaced Persons' Housing in Cities and the Conflicting Urban Development, Humanitarian, and Peacebuilding agendas

16h Coffee break

16h30 Parallel sessions

Panel 9: Housing tactics (Sala 1.2)

Chair: Jorgen Carling

Enrico Fravega and Daniela Giudici
Housing without homing, homing without housing. On affective investments in refugees' (in)formal dwellings in Italy

Panos Hatziprokopiou, Charalambos Tsavdaroglou
Refugees' threshold housing in Idomeni. In between a fencing border-scape and a transnational common space

Senyo Dotsey
Migration and precarious housing: difficulties and coping strategies of Sub-Saharan African (SSA) migrants in Bergamo, Italy

Elena Bulakh
Performing Russian National Identities through Housing Practices: Case Study of Russian Migrants in Portugal

Panel 10: Resistance and alternatives (Sala 2.4)

Chair: Reinhard Schweitzer

Sophie Hinger
(Un)Making Heimat – The Role of Civil Society in the Contested Production of Urban Belonging

Milena Belloni

An impossible alliance? Anarchist squatters and city administrators working towards enabling the right to housing for undocumented migrants in Amsterdam

Beatriz Padilla, Thais França, Adriane Vieira

Refugees' integration and housing challenges in Lisbon

Olaf Tietje

Refugees in Germany: Housing Between Stigmatising Circumstances and 'little Utopias'

Panel 11: PriMob (Session 2) (Sala 2.3)

Chair: Ana Gago

*PriMob is a new IMISCOE Research Initiative on privileged migration

Matthew Hayes

Lifestyle Migration, Coloniality, and Global Real Estate Extractivism

Irene Rodrigues, Fátima Amante and Sofia Gaspar

Real Estate Investment and Lifestyle migration: comparing Chinese and Brazilian Golden Visa Investors in Portugal

Meghann Ormond, Chee Han Lim

Assessing the impacts of international medical travel on local healthcare resource access in Penang, Malaysia

Nilcelene Biasutti, Alina Esteves, Jennifer McGarrigle

Global South-North Lifestyle Migration: Brazilian Retirement Migrants in Portugal

Franz Buhr

New pathways for migrant entrepreneurship: a pilot study with coffee shop owners in Lisbon

18h

Rinus Penninx Best Paper Award ceremony and closing ceremony (Auditório Orlando Ribeiro)

Field visits

Online registration

Thursday, February 6th

Migrant-led walking tour in Lisbon, city centre “There are worlds in Mouraria”

Duration: 2h30

Fee: 10 Euros (paid to the Renovar a Mouraria Association)

Meeting point: Associação Renovar a Mouraria at 10h

Saturday, February 8th

Walk and talk: a moving workshop on urban change and migration in Marvila, Port of Lisbon

Duration: 2h

No fee

Meeting point: Bela Vista metro station at 10h

This field visit is led by the ROCK project (Regeneration and Optimization of Cultural Heritage in Creative and Knowledge Cities, g.a. 730280) and is an initiative of PriMoB (Privileged Mobilities: Local Impacts, Belonging and Citizenship). Introduction by Luís Mendes (IGOT)

Useful contacts IGOT

Maria Lucinda Fonseca: +351 919 205 546

Franz Buhr: +351 918 188 847

National Emergency Services

Medical emergency: 112

Police: 112

Health line for emergencies available 24/7: 808 242 424

Wireless credentials IGOT

Network: guest-ul / User: igot / Password: igot2016

Scientific committee

Maria Lucinda Fonseca (IGOT-University of Lisbon)
Jennifer McGarrigle (IGOT-University of Lisbon)
Alina Esteves (IGOT-University of Lisbon)
Franz Buhr (IGOT-University of Lisbon)
Amandine Desille (IGOT-University of Lisbon)

Organisation

Ana Martins
Élmano Ricarte
Fernando Benedito
Joana dos Santos
José Presas
Luís Miranda
Maria João Raimundo
Raquel Rocha
Sara Dâmaso

Instituto de Geografia e Ordenamento do Território (IGOT)

Universidade de Lisboa
Rua Branca Edmée Marques
1600-276
Lisboa

E-MAIL: IMISCOESPRINGCONF@IGOT.ULISBOA.PT